

Occupational Health Physician

Location independent

Salary dependent on experience

Job ref: 19000BBA

Closing date: 20th March 2020

Description

We have an exciting new opportunity for an experienced Occupational Health Physician to join our Physician-led team on a permanent basis, and work remotely in a Location Independent capacity which could include possible clinic days in London.

You will carry out independent medical assessments both on client sites and from home, supporting our clients in a proactive, positive and effective manner, whilst acting as a point of escalation for our wider Occupational Health team.

You will work as part of an experienced OH team providing a supportive working culture, in an organisation which cares for the wellbeing of its employees. We offer provisions for internal and external CPD, annual appraisal and revalidation, as well as support towards professional membership fees.

Please note that whilst this is a full time role, we are happy to discuss flexible working.

Qualifications

You will preferably have MFOM/FFOM and be on the GMC's Specialist Register, or working towards that, ideally with strong experience to excel in a diverse Occupational Health Physician role. Strong candidates with AFOM may be considered.

About AXA

With a presence in over 60 countries, and 165,000 employees serving the needs of 107 million customers, AXA is big.

But never too big to care for every single person who works here. So when you join us, we promise to put our collective might behind you and your career.

You'll work in an open and supportive environment where you'll be developed, challenged and encouraged to move around to achieve even bigger and better things – nationally and internationally. You'll learn directly from senior leaders, from the best in our business. And you'll enjoy real responsibility, really early on.

Every large company today talks about supporting diversity and inclusion. But at AXA UK, these values form an integral part of everything we do. For us, it's about bringing together the best talent, helping people to realise their full potential by being 100% themselves at work and delivering outstanding service to everyone – regardless of difference.

Our specialist Health Services team sits as part of the wider AXA PPP healthcare business, and encompasses a range of healthcare services and professionals. We are very fortunate to have a team culture focused on trust, support and flexibility, making Health Services the successful yet caring team it is today.

Our key areas include Occupational Health, Musculoskeletal, and Psychological Services, where we have experienced clinical and non-clinical staff such as nurses, Occupational Health Advisors, Occupational Health Practitioners, Aeromedical Examiners, physiotherapists, psychologists, counsellors, and coordinators. But as with any business, our team extends beyond that to finance professionals, IT gurus and customer experience consultants, all dedicated to providing an innovative and seamless service for our customers.

What we offer

As well as working in a supportive and friendly culture, and as part of an experienced multidisciplinary team, you'll receive the following as part of an extensive remuneration package:

- Competitive base salary
- Discretionary bonus scheme linked to your own the company's performance
- Contributory pension scheme
- Support towards professional membership fees
- Option to buy additional holidays (basic annual allowance is 25 days + bank holidays)
- Discount on AXA Insurance products
- Continuous CPD, both internal and external
- Access to a variety of flexible benefit options
