

New Job Opportunity

Consultant Occupational Physician*

OHRD

OHRD is a leading Occupational Health provider based in Northern Ireland with a client base of over 300 customers in both private and public sectors, across Ireland.

We are a rapidly growing organisation and seek a full time Consultant Occupational Physician to join our expanding business to facilitate further growth in Northern Ireland and beyond . Part time applicants may also be considered.

**We also welcome applications from those working towards CCT via CESR or an approved training post.*

OHRD was the first independent provider to achieve SEQOHS accreditation in 2014 and have maintained this high standard since. Our ethos is based on collaboration and teamwork with clients and our services are currently delivered by an excellent team of experienced and dedicated staff.

The successful candidate will have input into all aspects of the business, leading a team of clinicians to deliver a high-quality service to existing clients and also working with the OHRD team to develop new business.

This a new and exciting opportunity for a forward thinking Consultant OHP and will allow the successful candidate to bring their knowledge and experience to the role whilst enabling their professional development.

OHRD offer highly attractive terms and conditions to a suitable candidate.
