

Department of Justice

www.dojni.gov.uk

ADVERTISEMENT NOTICE

Occupational Health Practitioners Required

The Department of Justice (DOJ) are seeking Independent Medical Referees (IMRs) to review the decisions of the Selected Medical Referee in respect of appeals for ill health retirement and/or Injury on Duty award from serving and former police officers.

Applications are invited from medical professionals who hold a *relevant Occupational Health Practitioner qualification for a minimum of 2 years

Associate, Member or Fellow of the Faculty of Occupational Medicine – AFOM, MFOM or FFOM or EEA equivalent

The Department intend to establish a qualified call off list of medical professionals to be appointed as Independent Medical Referees (IMRs). Applications are welcome from Selected Medical Practitioners.

For more information please visit <https://www.justice-ni.gov.uk/publications/appointment-independent-medical-referee>. The information pack, which includes details of fees and expenses, and application form can be requested as follows:-

Email: IODMailbox@justice-ni.x.gsi.gov.uk

Telephone: 028 905 23224

Post: Medical Appeals Co-ordinator, Room A4:16, Castle Buildings, Stormont Estate, Belfast, BT4 3SG

Completed application forms must be submitted by 12 noon on Wednesday 18 October 2017.