

www.ioha.net

Global Health Advocacy Leverage

Sustainable Development Goals
ILO Conventions

Nancy Wilk, IOHA President
ACGIH Representative to IOHA Board

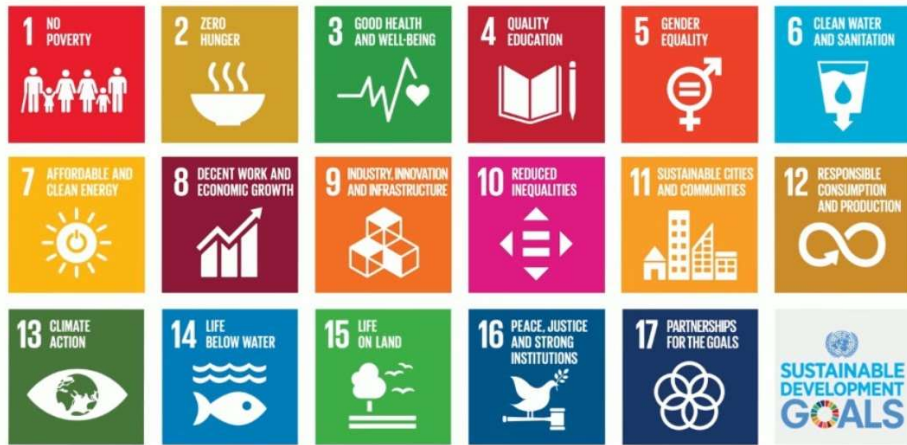

IOHA

GOSH Coalition Collective Work

- Identified ways to advance current SDGs
- Recommendations for next version of SDGs 3, 8 and 13
- Call to advance ILO Conventions
- Call to reconvene ILO/WHO OSH Committee
- Written submission UN 2025 ECOSOC Partnerships Forum
- Voice in global and local forums

THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

UN SDGs

“Leaving no one behind”

Global Advocacy for Occupational Health

Goals 1 & 2:
Good Occupational Health management

Goal 3: OH
services – safe,
healthy working conditions, free
from harm,
health and well-being in and out of work

Goal 5: Gender equality,
physically,
psychologically sustainable work environments
for women

Goal 8: Decent work, not become ill from work, working environment, raising standards eradicating

THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

UN SDGs Looking beyond 2030

Goal 3, Good Health and Well-Being:
Add “Basic Occupational Health Services”

Goal 8, Decent Work and Economic Growth:
Better protection for young workers Reduce work-related injury, illness and death by 50% by 2050

Goal 13, Climate Action:
New target and indicator - integrate climate resilience into labour and OHS requirements

International Labour Organization

Conventions & Recommendations

ILO Conventions (# member states ratifying)

155 (1981) – OSH (70)

161 (1985) – OH Services (35)

171 (1990) – Night Work (17)

187 (2006) – Promotional Framework for OSH (70)

Global Advocacy for Occupational Health

IOHA

Partnerships

GOSH

Global Occupational Safety & Health Coalition

2

ppm

Next steps?

What can you do?

- Review resource material
- Partner with others
- Work to advance SDGs
- Promote ratification of ILO conventions 155, 187 and 161
- Promote occupational hygiene, training and capacity
- GOSH Call to Action