UCL Workplace Health

London

Consultant Occupational Health Physician

Part Time : 21.9 Hours per week (60%FTE)

The appointment will be on UCL Grade 10. The salary range will be Competitive rates, inclusive of London Allowance.

You will be expected to provide consultant support for a range of occupational health services to a higher education establishment. This includes providing advice on: complex management referrals and ill health retirement cases, fitness to study cases, concerns raised during health surveillance and overseeing standing orders for the travel medicine clinic.

The post is 0.6FTE three days per week, with the expectation that the work would be undertaken on site. We are based in a new purpose built space on Grays Inn Road, a short walk from Russell Square, Chancery Lane and are close to Kings Cross.

You are required to be on the GMC Specialist Register or within six months of your expected date of receipt of a CCT at the time of interview. You must have demonstrable skills in listening, reading, writing and speaking in English that enable effective communication about medical topics with patients and colleagues, as set out in the GMC's Good Medical Practice (2013).

You must be undertaking annual appraisal and revalidation including continuous professional development activities, which will support you in your role. Previous experience working with a higher education institute and with professionally regulated students would be advantageous. Travel medicine experience or qualifications would also be beneficial. You must also have excellent IT skills as note taking and report writing are undertaken electronically.
