SOM Occupational Health Jobs + Career Fair

#OHJOBS2019

Learn about a career in occupational health

SOM event in partnership with the National School of Occupational Health

This event will provide information about careers in occupational health:

- What OH is and what disciplines there are e.g. Doctors, OH Technicians, Nurses
- Routes of entry
- Meet OH organisations looking for talent
- Find out about the type of work they do, what they are looking for and how you can fill your skills gap
- Meet OH recruiters and see what vacancies they have
- Network with other professionals, new graduates and students from across the UK
- Talk to the team from the SOM

Who can attend?

This event is aimed at anyone looking to find out more about a career in occupational health and medicine. It would help:

- Those interested to move into a career in OH e.g. Doctors, Nurses, OH Technicians, Physiotherapists and Psychologists
- Those whose jobs require them to upskill and take on responsibility for OH
